

Barbara Hernandez

Full Stack Web Developer with over five years experience with both enterprise and small scale applications. A graduate from the Georgia Institute of Technology web development coding bootcamp. Passionate about UI and clean, well-documented code. Naturally organized, communicative team player.

Duluth, GA 30096

(470) 222-6181

barndez@gmail.com

LinkedIn:

www.linkedin.com/in/barbara-anne-hernandez

Github:

<https://github.com/BarbaraHernandez>

EXPERIENCE

Cognizant — Associate Software Engineer

Atlanta, GA

November 2019 - PRESENT

Handled knowledge transfer for client codebase, creating relevant documentation.

Created documentation to streamline orientation for new hires.

Completed all tickets on or ahead of schedule.

Home Care Institute — Special Project Manager

John's Creek, GA

September 2013 - May 2019

Trained over 100 clients to use beginner and advanced features of the application.

Created and Maintained documentation for internal and client usage.

Created and Maintained all public-facing web applications and social media.

JET Programme — Assistant Language Teacher

Kamikitayama Village, Yoshino, Nara Prefecture, Japan

August 2012- August 2013

Coordinated and led cultural and language education in conjunction with senior staff and the Board of Education, all communication for the planning of which was conducted in Japanese.

SKILLS

HTML, CSS, SCSS, JavaScript, jQuery, Node.js, React.js, React Native, SQL, MySQL, MongoDB, Mongoose, Firebase, JSON, REST, AJAX, Axios, Bootstrap, Media Queries, APIs, Java, Spring, PWS, GIT, GitHub, Adobe Suite, SEO, and WordPress

EDUCATION

Georgia Institute of Technology

Professional Education

October 2019

Java Talent Accelerator Bootcamp

Georgia Institute of Technology

Professional Education

February 2019

Certificate in Full Stack Web Development

University of Georgia

Graduated May 2012 Magna Cum Laude

A.B. Linguistics

A.B. Spanish Language & Literature

Minor in Japanese Studies